

2019 FALL FOR GIVING GRANT GUIDELINES

Vision:

Fall for Greenville is the premier culinary festival in the Southeast.

Mission:

Fall for Greenville showcases the best of the best regional culinary and entertainment talent in a fall festival for all ages and supports local charities.

Eligibility Requirements:

We support grants to 501c3 nonprofit organizations that impact the people of Greenville, SC and have at least 2-5 years of operational history.

Funding Period:

Applications are due March 1, 2019 for a grant funding period between June 1, 2019 and May 31, 2020.

Funding Priorities:

- Culinary and Food Programs
- Cultural Diversity
- Family
- Music

Types of Grants:

- We make capital grants primarily for the purchase or renovation of facilities as well as equipment. Occasionally, we consider grants in support of endowment campaigns.
- We make program grants for requests that demonstrate a specific need or identify a unique set of activities.

Size & Duration:

- We value the experience and knowledge of our applicants to identify the size of the request most appropriate to their needs. We recognize that grants, both big and small, can have a profound effect on the outcomes of our applicant's work. The initiative will award grants, with each being a minimum request of $1,000 and a maximum request of $20,000.
- A formal presentation may be requested for larger grant proposals.
- We may consider partial funding of a request given our limited resources in comparison to the needs of our applicants.
- We primarily make grants for a period of one year.

What we DO NOT fund:

Organizations engaged in activities that are not aligned with our guidelines.

Grants used for general operating support.

Grants made directly to individuals, or anyone who may be a conflict of interest.

Political Campaigns or Lobbying

Organizations that exclusively serve religious purposes.

The Fall for Greenville grant will be issued in the form of reimbursements.
